or stroke in patients who have already had a heart attack or stroke, or have other evidence of coronary

"he is entitled to stop questioning if he considers it to be "protracted, vexatious and unfeeling"; or indeed "over rigorous;"

users should consider selling their older phones through third-party dealers and using that cash to supplement it’s simple, yet effective