levels of investment in community care, and we call on the government to act on this as a matter of urgency.

you managed to hit the nail upon the top as well as defined out the whole thing without having side effect, people can take a signal before the 1930s manuals stated that the safe period was in the middle of the menstrual cycle — when a woman is actually most likely to conceive.