10-20 percent of the synthetic dyes which are used in textile industry are discharged to waste water in an uncontrolled manner upon dyeing process.

This low incidence of shedding on only 1 of days seemed to make the risk of being with someone with genital herpes who was actually shedding virus only 1 chance in a hundred.